Join TABC staff by videoconference to discuss draft rules as a result of the agency's implementation of new laws.

Potential draft rules for publication:

- Item 1. Revisions to Subchapters A, B, C and F in Chapter 33, Licensing, to add new two-year license/permit fees, update for beer/ale consolidation and new license/permit structure, and finalize reorganization of the chapter.

It is TABC's intent to propose these rules for publication at a June 15 commission meeting. Draft rules are attached.

If you are unable to attend the videoconference meeting, you may share your thoughts with TABC staff by e-mail to rules@tabc.texas.gov.

To view supporting materials, including a chart showing the proposed fee changes and a video explaining the proposal, visit the TABC License Changes webpage: <https://www.tabc.texas.gov/services/tabc-2021-changes/license-changes/>
